You can afford it. You have the money, and you've already built a platform. There's no excuse. Ethan's genocide propaganda is beyond any "challenging" you think you're doing here. He does not respect you. How you've failed to recognize this is beyond me

Just pure, unbridled Zionist historical revisionism.

Everyone in the West is complicit in Israel's genocide in Gaza, but there are varying degrees of complicity. Our taxes being sent to Israel, yes, but that's being done against our will, and against everything we're advocating for.

Hila Klein VOLUNTEERED to join IDF terrorist raids on the illegally occupied West Bank. AB CHOOSES to continue working for and enabling his zionist propagandist boss, during the zionist genocide. You're placing these examples in the same category as paying taxes? Does your head rattle when you nod? x.com/nicholasdeorio...

The problem with Hila Klein is not her halloween themed etsy wall art, it's her spreading pro Israel propaganda to millions of people during Israel's genocide in Gaza. Stop being stupid

Ethan Klein did cry for a dead Palestinian child; One time, two years ago. Since then he's spent most of his public life propagandizing for the ideology that killed him, attacking its most vocal critics, and staying otherwise silent on the 20k+ children Israel has killed since

Remember when Ethan was literally moved to tears after watching a video about a Palestinian father who had his son brutally murdered by Israel? It's what you don't include, Noah. You're genuinely a spineless little freak and my god, I hope you get what's coming to you.

Remember when Ethan Klein referred to footage of Palestinian genocide victims as "gore porn" and implied that sharing it was antisemitic

its amazing to see how moved the average person seems to be by graphic footage of violence. shame nobody tried to share that sort of footage of an ongoing genocide

Ethan Klein has platformed just one single Palestinian on his show throughout the past 2 years of genocide, and that Palestinian was, you guessed it, Ahmed Fouad Alkhatib! The US funded pro Israel genocide collaborator. He did this because they are both repulsive Zionists!

Israel limits entry of baby formula in Gaza as infants die of hunger

While waiting to enter Gaza on a medical aid mission, an American doctor watched Israeli security forces confiscate the cans of powdered baby formula packed in his luggage. The vital product is desperately lacking in the Palestinian enclave, where about 50 children have died of hunger since March.
