

Nancy Guthrie latest: Sheriff investigating Ring camera from 2.5 miles away

Nancy Guthrie, 84, was taken from her home early on Sunday, Feb. 1.

By Aaron Katersky

February 27, 2026, 12:39 PM

Potential new clue in search for Nancy Guthrie Authorities are asking homeowners in the area to share their home security footage with investigators.

The Pima County Sheriff's Department said video obtained by Fox News Digital is part of the investigation into the abduction of Nancy Guthrie, though it is unclear whether it has any relevance to the case.

A Ring camera 2.5 miles from Guthrie's house captured a car going by around 2:30 a.m. on Sunday, Feb. 1, about the time police believe the 84-year-old was abducted from her Tucson, Arizona, home by an unknown suspect.

The FBI said it is aware of the footage.

Pima County Sheriffs deputies prepare for a shift change outside of Nancy Guthrie's residence, February 15, 2026 in Tucson, Arizona.
Brandon Bell/Getty Images

Related

Nancy Guthrie latest: FBI reducing personnel in Tucson, relocating command post to Phoenix

The sheriff's department has asked homeowners across Pima County to submit their home security footage. Investigators have canvassed an area within 2 miles of Guthrie's home.

Investigators have had glimpses of vehicles from various cameras but, as yet, have not associated a particular vehicle to Guthrie's kidnapping, sources familiar with the case told ABC News.

Meanwhile, days after the FBI said it was moving its command center from Tucson to Phoenix, the sheriff's department said Friday that it's "refocusing resources to detectives specifically assigned to this case."

This image provided by the FBI Feb. 5, 2026, shows a missing person Nancy Guthrie.
FBI

"As leads are developed and resolved, resource allocation may fluctuate," the sheriff's department said, adding that it "will maintain a patrol presence in the Guthrie neighborhood."

The FBI is also preparing to turn over the house to the Guthrie family, sources told ABC News.

U.S. journalist and television host Savannah Guthrie poses with her mother, Nancy Guthrie in an undated photograph.
Courtesy of NBC/Today via Reuters

Related

Nancy Guthrie abduction: The full timeline

Guthrie's daughter, "Today" show host Savannah Guthrie, spoke out on Instagram again on Friday, writing, "Please - be the one that brings her home. Tips can be anonymous, reward can be paid in cash."

Savannah Guthrie shared video from a "Today" story that says anonymous tipsters don't need to show ID and are often paid in cash.

On Tuesday, Savannah Guthrie announced a new \$1 million reward for the recovery of her mom. The combined reward between the family and law enforcement now stands at $1.2 million.

Anyone with information is urged to call 911, the FBI at 1-800-CALL-FBI, or the Pima County Sheriff's Department at 520-351-4900.

Related Topics

Nancy Guthrie

Sponsored Content by Taboola

Vital Guardian

Japan's Oldest Doctors Say Cognitive Decline Isn't Age: Just Stop Eating These 3 Foods

How Older Adults Are Dropping Weight (This Is Blowing Up)

Sponsored / Health Wellness

Learn More

Temu Clearance Sale

Sponsored / TEMU

Shop Now

Costco Shoppers Say This Fat-Burning Patch Triggers Weight Loss "Unlike Any Other"

Sponsored / Diet-masters

Learn More

Japan's Oldest Doctors Say Cognitive Decline Isn't Age: Just Stop Drinking These 2 Drinks

Sponsored / Mind Health Journal

Learn More

Doctors Identify 10 Medications Now Connected to Memory Decline (See the List)

Sponsored / Cognitive Wellness Report

Learn More

She Mixed Baking Soda With This - Now She Can't Stop Losing Weight

Sponsored / Health Wellness

Learn More

Doctors Identify 10 Medications Now Connected to Cognitive Decline (See the List)

Sponsored / Vital Guardian

Doctors Identify 10 Foods Now Connected to Memory Decline (See The List)

Sponsored / National Institute of Memory

Top Doctors Say Cognitive Decline Isn't Age: Just Stop Drinking These 2 Popular Drinks

Sponsored / US

Learn More

